Charlotte George

Charlotte George is a certified career coach with over 20 years of experience in coaching and mentoring individuals from diverse backgrounds. Trained and certified by Workforce Singapore (WSG) and National Career Development Association (NCDA) in the States, she is passionate about helping people navigate their career paths and find meaning in their lives. With extensive experience in designing and delivering competency-based training, she has made significant contributions to the professional growth of her clients. Currently, she serves as the President of the People & Career Development Association (PCDA) Singapore and works with Kaplan, an international private educator. Additionally, she shares her expertise as an adjunct lecturer at the Singapore University of Social Sciences (SUSS).

In her personal life, she is involved in her community at the Church of St Anthony, where she has held several leadership roles. She also volunteers with the Catholic Leadership Centre (CLC) to facilitate workshops and also in the Asia Pacific Career Development Association (APCDA). She is a proud parent of two daughters and a son-in-law and she enjoys spending time with her cocker spaniel, Cheddar. Her love for chocolates and coffee fuels her days as she continues to contribute to the field of career development, mentoring and education.
